INTRODUCTION

1. Description of Broxtowe

Broxtowe Borough Council is a district council established by the Local Government Act 1972, whose administrative area covers the southwest of Nottinghamshire. The administrative centre of the Borough is Beeston, the largest of the four principal towns, the others being Eastwood, Stapleford and Kimberley. The Borough forms the western edge of the greater Nottingham conurbation, with the City of Nottingham bordering much of the eastern boundary of the Borough. To the west lie the Derbyshire boroughs of Erewash and Amber Valley. The M1 motorway bisects the Borough and junctions 25 and 26 are located within it.

Broxtowe is compact, covering an area of only 8,028 hectares, two thirds of which is greenbelt, and has a population of 109,487 (2011 census). This figure represents 10.6% of the total population of the County of Nottinghamshire.

2. Summary of the Council's Constitution: explanation, purpose and content

This Constitution regulates the ways in which the Council conducts its business and delegates its functions. It sets out arrangements with other authorities: the town and parish councils within its area and with Erewash Borough Council in the operation of Bramcote Bereavement Services via the Joint Committee. The Constitution is designed to bring together key corporate documents which describe the management structures of the Council and govern its internal processes by means of protocols, codes of conduct and good practice/guidance.

3. Elections to the Council

Whole council elections are held every four years, with councillors being elected for a four year term of office. The number of councillors is determined by the profile of the borough and the size of the electorate and currently comprises 44 councillors. That issue is kept under review by the government and is maintained through periodic electoral reviews.

A person is entitled to vote in an election for membership of the Council or certain other elections if they are:

- resident in the area
- not under a legal incapacity preventing them from voting
- a qualifying Commonwealth, Irish or EU citizen and
- of voting age and their name is included in the Register of Electors.

The qualifications for voting vary depending on the type of election (borough/parish/county/parliamentary/european).

4. Detail

4.1 As of 11 May 2016 the Council adopted a Committee system. All decisions of the Council are taken either at full Council involving all 44 elected members, or by the appropriate Committee, of which, represented by a politically proportionate number of members. These Committees are as follows:

- Policy and Performance Committee
- Finance Committee
- Housing Committee
- Jobs and Economy Committee
- Environment and Community Safety Committee
- Leisure, Parks and Cemeteries Committee
- Governance, Audit and Standards Committee
- Planning Committee
- Licensing and Appeals Committee
- Alcohol and Entertainments Committee and Sub-Committee
- Local Joint Consultative Committee
- Bramcote Bereavement Services Joint Committee

4.2 Regulatory and Quasi-Judicial

In addition, under the provisions of the Local Government Act 2000, certain regulatory and quasi-judicial decisions may not be taken by standard Committees. The Council has therefore established a Development Control Committee to look after applications for planning permission and planning enforcement. A Licensing and Appeals Committee deals with the appeals which are made to the Council against decisions that have been taken as well as all the Council's licensing functions e.g. taxis and dangerous wild animals, except for those responsibilities conferred on the Council by the Licensing Act 2003 and the Gambling Act 2005. For these latter licensing matters, which cover liquor licensing and regulated entertainment as well as gaming, a separate Alcohol and Entertainments Licensing Committee has been established together with its sub-committees, which are known as 'panels'. The regulatory and quasi-judicial committees have special rules which follow principles of natural justice.

4.3 Ethical

The government has also been concerned to strengthen the security of ethical standards in local government. In line with those expectations the Council has accordingly established a Standards Committee, which has introduced and will keep under review codes of conduct for members and officers and ensure proper training is provided for their implementation. The Standards Committee, in partnership with the Monitoring Officer, will also examine cases where it is alleged that standards of conduct have not been maintained.

4.4 General

There is a range of other bodies exercising Council functions. These include the Governance Audit and Standards Committee, the Housing Payments Committee and the Independent Remuneration Panel for Members' Allowances. More details of these and other bodies are contained in the Scheme of Delegation.

As envisaged by the government the bulk of everyday decisions of the Council are taken by officers acting within the policies and guidelines established by the Council and its Committees. Officers' powers are contained in the Scheme of Delegation.

5. General Principles

In drawing up its constitutional arrangements the Council has sought to achieve the government's purpose in providing clear accountability in decision-making. The Council, at an early stage in formulating its procedures, decided that the Committees should so far as possible meet in public. Those principles are enshrined in this Constitution.

6. Constitution

This Constitution embraces a number of documents to put the above principles into effect. The documents will be kept under review by the Council and will be amended in line with legislative requirements and best practice from time to time. The following documents comprise the Council's Constitution:

NOTE - The Public Interest Test

The Public Interest Test in the Freedom of Information (FOI) Act 2000 is specifically defined –

The Authority must release the information unless “in all the circumstances of the case, the public interest in maintaining the exemption outweighs the public interest in disclosing the information”.

The starting point is that there is a general public interest in release and the public authority has to decide whether in any particular case it would serve the interest of the public better to either disclose or withhold the information.

There is no legal definition of what the public interest is, but the following have been identified as some of the relevant considerations.

There is a distinction between the public interest and what merely interests the public.

- Does it further the understanding of and participation in the public debate of issues of the day?
- Does it promote accountability and transparency by public authorities for decisions taken by them or in the spending of public money?
- Does it allow individuals and companies to understand decisions made by public authorities affecting their lives?
- Does it bring to light information affecting public health and public safety?

11. Exclusion of Access by the Public to Reports

11.1 If the Director of Legal and Planning Services and Monitoring Officer thinks fit, the Council may exclude access by the public to reports which in their opinion relate to items during which, in accordance with Rule 10, the meeting is likely not to be open to the public. Such reports will be marked “Not for publication” together with the category of information likely to be disclosed. If the information is exempt information, the category of the exempt information must also be marked on the report.

- 11.2 The Council is requested in the agenda to confirm the action set out in 11.1 by resolution. Arrangements will be made to recall the press and public immediately should the motion not be passed.
- 11.3 If the matter is considered in public, any related report will also become available to the public.

SCOPE OF ARRANGEMENTS AND DELEGATIONS

1. Council's Terms of Reference

1.1 Some functions must be carried out by the full Council. Those functions retained by full Council are set out at section 8 of this scheme. In addition, there are a number of miscellaneous bodies which administer the Council's business. They are dealt with in section 9 onwards.

2. Committees

2.1 Terms of Reference of various Committees are contained below.

3. Regulatory and Quasi-judicial Committees and the Governance, Audit and Standards Committee

3.1 These committees will carry out functions of a quasi-judicial nature. There are three such committees: Planning Committee, Licensing and Appeals Committee and the Alcohol and Entertainments, where the Committee has power to decide whether to grant or refuse a benefit or issue a penalty. Special legal rules of fairness and procedure apply to the meetings of such Committees.

3.2 The Governance, Audit and Standards Committee has powers to recommend codes of conduct for members and officers and to ensure training takes place to secure good practice. It has certain responsibilities under the Localism Act 2011 in respect of parish and town councils within the Borough. The Governance, Audit and Standards Committee also has the power to grant dispensations in connection with the declaration of members' interests.

3.3 Whilst many of the functions exercised by the regulatory Committees are conferred directly by statute rather than by delegation from the Council as the Committees' parent body, both kinds of derivation are dealt with together for the sake of completeness.

4. Working Groups

4.1 The Council has established several operational Working Groups. These are internal meetings whose minutes and agendas are not subject to the statutory rules that bind the other more formal committees of the Council. These meetings are held in private although the documentation may subsequently be published if requested. These committees cannot make decisions in their own name nor can they make recommendations to the decision-making bodies of the Authority in their own name.

4.2 The meetings held in this way are the:

- Local Joint Consultative Committee
- Energy Efficiency Working Group
- Computer Working Group

- Equalities Working Group
- Housing Performance Group
- Member Training and Development Working Group.

5. Other bodies

5.1 In addition certain other bodies operate under the umbrella of the Council's organisation. These include the Local Joint Consultative Committee, the Bramcote Bereavement Services Joint Committee and the Independent Remuneration Panel. Whilst these bodies do not always exercise delegated powers, they are referred to here for the sake of completeness.

6. Officers

6.1 This Scheme defines the functions which the Council requires officers to carry out on its behalf. These officers' powers have to be listed by law. The functions are set out as "Officer Delegations". This Constitution also identifies those officers who act as Head of Paid Service (Chief Executive), Monitoring Officer (Director of Legal and Planning Services) and the Chief Financial Officer (Deputy Chief Executive) who receive powers and duties directly under relevant legislation, as well as delegated by this Scheme. Where the context permits, 'Director' in this Scheme of Delegation includes the Chief Executive and Deputy Chief Executive.

7. General Provisions

7.1 All aspects of this scheme of delegation are subject to the Council's standing orders and financial regulations. The Scheme of Delegation shall be read and interpreted so as to comply with all relevant laws applying at the relevant time.

7.2 Except where otherwise expressly provided, decisions taken by the Committees and officers shall be in accordance with policy already approved by the Council and Committees. Expenditure involved shall be incurred only where provided for in annual estimates or by way of a supplementary estimate.

7.3 In addition to any specific power to authorise proceedings, each Committee has authority generally to institute such legal proceedings as may be required for the enforcement of any of the matters delegated to it or to officers or in respect of the contravention of such matters.

7.4 All functions of Committees and officers are exercised and performed on behalf of and in the name of the Council and acts and proceedings thereunder are the acts and proceedings of the Council. As far as the Committees are concerned the exercise of such functions is indicated by the prefix 'RESOLVED' before the minute.

7.5 A reference to an Act of Parliament or Regulations in the Scheme includes a reference to any amendment of or replacement to that Act or Regulations, any consolidating re-enactment of it and any subordinate legislation made under that Act.

7.6 Any reference in this Scheme to the service or issue of a notice includes receiving and considering representations on it, and where necessary withdrawing, revoking, amending or re-serving it, taking legal proceedings to enforce it and carrying out work or other acts in default of compliance with it (including the seeking and acceptance of tenders) and recovery of the costs of so doing.

7.7 For the avoidance of doubt it is confirmed that:

- (i) any reference in this Scheme to a named officer includes any officer who may at any time succeed to or carry out the relevant functions of that named officer (whether as a result of department reorganisation, change of post title or otherwise)
- (ii) a named officer or successor under paragraph (i) of this clause may arrange for a function delegated to that officer to be performed by any other officer in the name of the officer to whom the function was delegated by this scheme.

7.8 For the avoidance of doubt it is confirmed that:

- (i) any matter delegated in this scheme to an officer is also a function of the Council or appropriate committee from which the officer derived the powers in question;
- (ii) any power delegated in this scheme to the Director of Legal and Planning Services (other than which is by law conferred on the Monitoring Officer) or the Director of Housing, Leisure and Property may also be performed by the Chief Executive; and any power delegated in this scheme to the Head of Neighbourhoods and Prosperity may also be performed by the Director of Legal and Planning Services;
- (iii) unless otherwise indicated or apparent from their contexts, all decisions are to be made in the name of the Council, e.g. that the Council grants a permission with or without conditions, or refuses permission.

CONTRACT STANDING ORDERS

Standing Orders below have been approved by the Council Relating to Contracts and are incorporated into the Council's Standing Orders accordingly.

1. Basic principles and compliance with standing orders

- 1.1 All purchasing and disposals procedures must:
- a. aim to achieve value for money
 - b. be consistent with the highest standards of integrity
 - c. ensure fairness in allocating public contracts
 - d. comply with all legal requirements
 - e. ensure that non-commercial considerations do not influence any contracting decision except where specifically referred to in these standing orders
 - f. support the Council's vision and priorities
 - g. support the Council's views around sustainable procurement and environmental issues
 - h. comply with the Council's Commissioning and Procurement Strategy
- 1.2 Every contract and the procedures relating to the selection of tenderers and the obtaining and opening of tenders or quotations shall comply with these standing orders and no exception from any of the following provisions of these standing orders shall be made otherwise than by the direction of the Council or by a Committee or by the Chief Executive or duly nominated substitute understanding order 32.
- 1.3 A record of any exception from any of the provisions of these standing orders, together with the reasons therefore, shall be included in the minutes of the Council or a Committee by which the exception was made, as the case may be.

2. Procurement options

- 2.1 Officers should consider what procurement method is most likely to achieve the purchasing objectives with the preference being for an open or restricted tender process to be used wherever possible. Regardless of the procurement options chosen, all UK and EU legislation and directives should be complied with. In particular, where any such directive requires the publication of notices of contracts to be let, the requirements thereof shall be complied with notwithstanding that they may exceed or modify the requirements of any of these standing orders.

Collaborative procurement

- 2.2 In order to secure value for money the Council may decide to enter into collaborative procurement arrangements. All purchases made via a local authority purchasing and distribution consortium are deemed to comply with the Council's contract procedures and no exemption is required. Purchases above the EU threshold must be let under the EU procedure unless the consortium concerned has satisfied this requirement already by letting their contract in accordance with the EU procedure on behalf of the authority and other consortium members.

- 2.3 Any contract entered into through collaboration with other local authorities or other public bodies, where a competitive process has been followed that complies with the contract procedure rules and standing orders of the leading organisation, will be deemed to comply with these standing orders and no exemption is required.

Framework Agreements

- 2.4 Framework agreements must only be used where the Council is either a named participant or where the Council is a recognisable class of contracting authority under the terms of the framework agreement.
- 2.5 Contracts based on framework agreements may be awarded by either:
- a. applying the terms laid down in the framework agreement (where such terms are sufficiently precise) without reopening competition, or
 - b. where the terms laid down in the framework agreement are not precise enough or complete for the particular item under consideration, by holding a mini competition amongst the organisations included within the agreement.

Multiple contracts

- 2.6 Where it is considered that the value of work on a number of individual contracts awarded to any one contractor within a period of 12 months is likely to exceed the values as laid down in standing order 5.1 if it had been awarded within one single contract, then officers shall comply with these standing orders in the same manner as would have been applicable if the work had been let as a single contract.

Auctions

- 2.7 The appropriate Chief Officer in consultation with the Deputy Chief Executive or the Chief Executive may resolve whether the acquisition or disposal of goods or materials by the Council up to an anticipated value of £150,000 should be by way of public auction. Purchases and sales of goods or materials of an anticipated value in excess of £150,000 shall only be effected at auction with the approval of a Committee

3. Exemptions

- 3.1 Where a proposed contract is likely to exceed the EU threshold, a Chief Officer has no delegated powers and the matter has to be determined by a Committee.
- 3.2 Where an exemption is necessary because of unforeseeable emergency involving immediate risk to persons, property or serious disruption to council services, approval must be sought from the Chief Executive, or in his/her absence the Deputy Chief Executive in accordance with standing order 32. Where this situation arises, a report must be sent to the next appropriate Committee detailing the action taken.
- 3.3 Nothing in these standing orders and procedures shall require competitive tenders to be invited in any of the following circumstances:
- a. In the case of EU contracts no extension is permitted unless the option to do so was included when first advertised
 - b. The work to be executed or goods or materials to be supplied or the services to be provided constitute an extension of an existing contract provided that such an extension has been reflected in any contract documents or the value of such an extension is less than 10% of the original contract value (so long as this below the EU threshold). In exceptional circumstances, where such an extension has not been previously provided for, the appropriate Committee may be requested to approve such an extension.
 - c. The work to be executed or the goods or materials to be supplied consist of repairs to or the supply of parts to existing proprietary machinery or plant by the manufacturers or their agents.
 - d. The estimated expenditure is less than £25,000, provided that the appropriate Chief Officer shall take reasonable steps to secure the order at the most competitive price
 - e. The sale or purchase is by or at public auction.

4. Relevant contracts

- 4.1 All relevant contracts must comply with these standing orders and procedures. A relevant contract is any arrangement made by or on behalf of the authority for the carrying out of works or for the supply of goods, materials or services. These include arrangements for:
- (i) the supply or disposal of goods
 - (ii) the hire, rental or lease of goods or equipment
 - (iii) the delivery of services, including (but not limited to) those related to:

- a. the recruitment of non-direct employees/agency staff
- b. land and property transactions
- c. financial and consultancy services.

4.2 Relevant contracts do not include:

- (i) contracts of employment which make an individual a direct employee of the authority
- (ii) treasury management deals for borrowing or investment which fall to be dealt with in accordance with the Treasury Management and Investment strategies.

5. Purchases - competition requirements

5.1 The process to be followed in conducting the purchasing of goods, materials or services is as laid down in the table below:

Contract value	Requirements
Below £25,000	Chief Officer decides if quotations are needed or are appropriate in order to demonstrate value for money.
£25,000 to £60,000	At least three quotations to be obtained
£60,000 to EU threshold	Tenders required. Chief Officer decides upon approach to advertising after seeking procurement advice. Contracts above £120,000 to be advertised in specialist newspapers/journals/websites as appropriate
Above EU threshold	EU procurement regulations apply for all matters

5.2 Where it is considered appropriate Chief Officers can choose to go out for tender even if this is not required by these standing orders and procedures. Quotations should also be obtained for contracts estimated to cost less than £25,000 where the Chief Officer considers it is desirable in order to achieve value for money.

5.3 For contracts in value between £25,000 and £60,000, where it is not possible to obtain three quotations due to lack of suitable firms prepared to quote or for some other valid reason, the Chief Officer shall report such reason together with details of the quotations received to the appropriate Committee.

Advertising

5.4 Invitations to quote for the supply of goods, materials or services or for the execution of works shall be sent to at least three persons or such persons as may respond to an advertisement placed on an appropriate website that the Council uses to advertise such contracts or, if there are fewer than three such persons, to all such persons.

- 5.5 For contracts involving the supply of goods, materials or services or the execution of work estimated to be likely to exceed £60,000 in value or amount, an invitation to be considered for being able to tender for such a contract shall be sent to all persons who reply to a public notice.
- 5.6 In any such case at least 10 days public notice on such websites as the Council may determine for the advertising of such contracts must be given, expressing the nature and purpose thereof, inviting tenders for its execution and stating the last date on which tenders will be received.

Award criteria

- 5.7 All quotations and tenders must define award criteria that are appropriate to the purchase and designed to secure an outcome giving demonstrable value for money for the authority. The basic criteria shall be:
- a. 'most economically advantageous', where considerations other than price also apply, or
 - b. 'lowest price', where payment is to be made by the authority, or
 - c. 'highest price', where payment is to be received by the authority.

9. Acceptance of tenders and quotations

- 9.1 Tenders and quotations must be evaluated and contracts awarded in accordance with the award criteria. Tenders and quotations may encompass quantitative and/or qualitative issues as well as payment values which can be taken into account within the evaluation process.

- 9.3 Where quantitative and/or qualitative issues, in addition to payment values, form part of the tender evaluation, a report on the outcomes of the evaluation shall be prepared by the appropriate chief officer. Where the contract value involved is £25,000 or below, a decision on the award of the contract shall be made by the Chief Executive or Deputy Chief Executive in consultation with the Chief Officer. For contract values in excess of £25,000, a report on the outcomes of the evaluation shall be prepared by the Chief Officer and presented to the appropriate Committee including a recommendation as to the tender that should be accepted and the basis for such a recommendation.

10. Reports on tenders

- 10.1 Where the tender received and recommended for acceptance is for an amount in excess of the approved budgetary provision, then the appropriate chief officer or the appropriate Committee may:

consultation with the Deputy Chief Executive shall instruct, where he/she considers it to be necessary, that a performance bond must be obtained. In all such cases the bond, to the value of 10% of the contract sum, must be provided by the contractor from an insurance company authorised by the Department for Business Improvement and Skills or from a Joint Stock Bank.

- 11.11 In every written contract for the supply of goods, materials or services which exceeds £25,000 in value or amount a clause may, where appropriate, be inserted to secure that, should the contractor fail to deliver the goods, materials or services or any portion of them within the time or times specified in the contract, the Council, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of contract, shall be at liberty to determine the contract either wholly or to the extent of such default and to purchase other goods, materials or services, as the case may be, of the same or similar description to make good (a) such default or (b), in the event of the contract being wholly determined, the goods, materials or services remaining to be delivered. The clause shall further secure that, the amount by which the cost of so purchasing other goods, materials or services exceeds the amount which would have been delivered in accordance with the contract, shall be recoverable from the contractor.

12. Prevention of corruption and collusion

- 12.1 There shall be inserted in every written contract a clause empowering the Council to cancel the contract and recover from the contractor the amount of any loss resulting from such cancellation if the contractor shall have offered or given or agreed to give to any person any gift or consideration of any kind as an inducement or reward for doing or forbearing to do or for having done or foreborne to do any action towards the obtaining or execution of the contract or any other contract with the Council, or for showing or forbearing to show favour or disfavour to any person in relation to the contract or any other contract with the Council, or if the like acts shall have been done by any person employed by the contractor or acting on the contractor's behalf (whether with or without the knowledge of the contractor), or if in relation to any contract with the Council the contractor or any person employed by the contractor or acting on the contractor's behalf shall have committed an offence under the Prevention of Corruption Acts 1906 and 1916, the Bribery Act 2010 or shall have given any fee or reward the receipt of which is an offence under sub-sections (2) and (3) of Section 117 of the Local Government Act 1972, together with any amendment thereto.

13. Declaration of interests

- 13.1 If it comes to the knowledge of a member or officer of the authority that a contract in which he or she (or partner or close member of the family) has a personal or prejudicial interest has been or is proposed to be entered into by the Council, he or she shall immediately give notice to the Monitoring Officer.

Disclosable Pecuniary Interest

I have a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest if I, or my spouse or civil partner, have a pecuniary interest as listed in the national rules below.

If I have any of the following pecuniary interests, they are my Disclosable Pecuniary Interests under the national rules. Any reference to spouse or civil partner includes any person with whom I am living as husband or wife, or as if they were my civil partner.

The national rules are:

- Any employment, office, trade, profession or vocation carried on for profit or gain, which I, or my spouse or civil partner, undertakes.
- Any payment or provision of any other financial benefit (other than from your council or authority) made or provided within the relevant period in respect of any expenses incurred by me in carrying out duties as a member, or towards my election expenses. This includes any payment or financial benefit from a trade union within the meaning of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992. The relevant period is the 12 months ending on the day when I tell the monitoring officer about my disclosable pecuniary interests following my election or re-election, or when I became aware that I had a disclosable pecuniary interest relating to a matter on which I was acting alone.
- Any contract which is made between myself, or my spouse or my civil partner (or a body in which I, or my spouse or my civil partner, has a beneficial interest) and the council or authority –

Action to be taken

If I am present at a meeting of the council, or of any committee, sub-committee, joint committee, or joint sub-committee of the authority, and I have a disclosable pecuniary interest relating to any business that is or will be considered at the meeting, I must not:

- participate in any discussion of that particular business at the meeting, or if I become aware of a disclosable pecuniary interest during the meeting participate further in any discussion of the business, or
- participate in any vote or further vote taken on the matter at the meeting.

These prohibitions apply to any form of participation, including speaking as a member of the public.

This authority requires members to withdraw from the room at this point to make clear to the public that I am not influencing the meeting in anyway and to protect the councillor from the criminal sanctions that apply should the councillor take part.

Where the interest I have declared is not on my Register of Interest Form then I will update the form with the relevant interest to the Monitoring Officer within 28 days.

In certain circumstances I can request a dispensation from these prohibitions

Pecuniary Interests

As a member, I will have a Pecuniary Interest in an item of business of the Council where:

- a. a decision in relation to that business might reasonably be regarded as affecting the well-being or financial standing of myself or a member of my family or a person with whom I have a close association to a greater extent than it would affect the majority of the council tax payers, ratepayers or inhabitants of the ward or electoral area for which I have been elected or otherwise of the authority's administrative area, or
- b. it relates to or is likely to affect any of the Disclosable Pecuniary Interests as listed above, but in respect of a member of your family or a person with whom I have a close association and that interest is not a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest.

Action to be taken

If I am present at a meeting of the council, or of any committee, sub-committee, joint committee, or joint sub-committee of the authority, and I have a pecuniary interest relating to any business that is or will be considered at the meeting, I must not:

- participate in any discussion of that particular business at the meeting, or if I become aware of my disclosable pecuniary interest during the meeting participate further in any discussion of the business, or
- participate in any vote or further vote taken on the matter at the meeting.

These prohibitions do not apply to me speaking as a member of the public.

This authority does not require members to withdraw from the room at this point.

Non-pecuniary interests

A non-pecuniary interest is an interest which is not pecuniary (as defined above) but is nonetheless so significant that a member of the public with knowledge of the relevant facts, would reasonably regard to be so significant that it would materially impact upon my judgement of the public interest

Action to be taken

If I am present at a meeting of the council, of its executive or any committee of the executive, or of any committee, sub-committee, joint committee, or joint sub-committee of the authority, and I have a Non-pecuniary interest relating to any business that is or will be considered at the meeting, I must:

- Declare the nature and extent of my interest including enough detail to allow a member of the public to understand it's nature.

I may stay, speak, vote and take a full part in the meeting.

Registering and declaring pecuniary Interests

I must, within 28 days of taking office as a member or co-opted member, notify the Authority's Monitoring Officer of any Disclosable Pecuniary Interest as defined by regulations made by the Secretary of State, where the pecuniary interest is mine, my spouse's or civil partner's, or is the pecuniary interest of somebody with whom I am living with as a husband or wife, or as if we were civil partners.

If an interest has not been entered onto the authority's register, then I must disclose the interest to any meeting of the authority at which I am present, where I have a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest in any matter being considered and where the matter is not a 'sensitive interest'.¹

Following any disclosure of an interest not on the authority's register or the subject of pending notification, I must notify the Monitoring Officer of the interest within 28 days beginning with the date of disclosure.

Unless dispensation has been granted, I may not participate in any discussion of, vote on, or discharge any function related to any matter in which I have a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest as defined by regulations made by the Secretary of State.

Additionally, I must observe the restrictions the authority places on my involvement in matters where I have a Disclosable Pecuniary Interest or Pecuniary Interest as defined by my authority.

¹ A 'sensitive interest' is described in the Localism Act 2011 as a member or co-opted member of an authority having an interest, and the nature of the interest being such that the member or co-opted member, and the authority's monitoring officer, consider that disclosure of the details of the interest could lead to the member or co-opted member, or a person connected with the member or co-opted member, being subject to violence or intimidation.

EMPLOYEE CODE OF CONDUCT

1. INTRODUCTION

The Council believes that its activities demand the highest standards of confidence from the public and that this confidence will derive from the way in which the Council and its employees conduct themselves in undertaking its business. Indeed, public confidence in the integrity of both the Council and the individual would be shaken were the least suspicion, however ill-founded, to arise that there could be, in any way, an influence from improper motives.

It is, therefore, important for the Council to provide guidance on standards of conduct which applies to, is available to, and understood by employees at all levels, and this Code of Conduct has been prepared accordingly.

The Code supplements statements and requirements contained within Codes of Conduct for Professional Bodies, the National and Local Schemes of Conditions of Service, the Council's Standing Orders and Financial Regulations and any departmental rules of conduct that may be issued from time to time by Chief Officers. Copies of these documents are available via normal departmental management channels.

Whilst the Code is reasonably comprehensive, it is not possible to address every possible circumstance, and simply because a particular action may not be addressed within the Code, this does not condone that action by omission. It is also expected that all employees will behave within the law whilst undertaking their official duties. This Code is incorporated into, and forms part of the contractual relationship between the Council and its employees. As such, it is admissible in evidence in any proceedings under the Council's disciplinary and grievance procedures. Chief Officers are required to report to the Chief Executive to comply with this code, whilst the Chief Executive must report to the Director of Legal and Planning Services (as Monitoring Officer).

2. STANDARDS

All employees are expected to give the highest possible standard of service and, where it is part of their duties, to provide appropriate advice to councillors and fellow employees with impartiality. The Council strives to maintain a high level of service and any deficiency, impropriety or breach of procedure must be reported to the manager. If, for any reason, employees do not feel able to talk directly to their manager or Chief Officer, they may talk to the Human Resources Division of the Chief Executive's office and they will assist in deciding the most appropriate action to take. This may involve identifying the concern to the Director of Legal and Planning Services as the Council's Monitoring Officer. In accordance with Financial Regulations, if an irregularity occurs, or is suspected, which may involve financial loss, it must be reported immediately to the Chief Officer and Deputy Chief Executive. Employees should be aware that any impropriety or breach of procedure may result in disciplinary action being taken.

Dress and Personal Appearance at Work

Employees are reminded that standards of dress, wearing of corporate and protective clothing, personal appearance and hygiene, including standards required in the interests of health and safety, can be matters affecting public confidence and they should therefore make themselves aware of, and adhere to, the expected standards for their particular employment.

3. DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

The Code of Conduct is based on the assumption that open government is best. The law requires that certain types of information must be available to Councillors, members of the public, auditors, government departments, service users relating to the Council while the Council itself has decided to open other types of information. Employees must respect confidential information of which they are or should be aware.

Employees should make themselves aware of which information they come into contact with in the course of their employment is open and which is not and act accordingly. All information contained in personal data relating to members of the public and employees must be obtained, held and processed fairly and lawfully in accordance with the purposes of the Data Protection Act 1988 and must not be used or disclosed in any manner incompatible with that Act.

Employees must not use any restricted or confidential information obtained in the course of their employment for personal gain or benefit, nor pass it on to others who might use it in such a way.

Any restricted information received by an employee that is personal must not be divulged by that employee without prior approval, except where such disclosure is required or sanctioned by the law.

4. POLITICAL NEUTRALITY

Employees serve the Council, not just the controlling group. They must ensure that the individual rights of all councillors are respected. Employees must give advice which does not compromise their political neutrality.

Employees, whether or not politically restricted, must follow every lawful expressed policy of the Council and must not allow their own personal or political opinions to interfere with their work.

Employees must not be involved in advising any political group of the Council or attend any group meetings in an official capacity without the consent of their Chief Officer.

5. RELATIONSHIPS

5.1 Councillors

Employees are responsible to the Council through its senior managers. For some, their role is to give advice to councillors and senior managers and all are there to carry out the Authority's work. Mutual respect between employees and councillors is essential to good local government. Close personal familiarity between employees and individual councillors can damage the relationship and prove embarrassing to other employees and councillors and should therefore be avoided.

5.2 The Local Community and Service Users

Employees must always remember their responsibilities to the community of Broxtowe and ensure courteous, efficient and impartial service delivery to all groups and individuals within that community as defined by the policies of the Council. Employees must also be careful that any relationship that they have with any other person cannot bring the Council into disrepute. In particular, no employee may act in a regulatory or inspection capacity in respect of any matter in which he/she has an interest.

Employees are obliged to declare their interest in their relationship or their activities as soon as it becomes apparent that there may be an involvement or conflict with the Council's own interests.

5.3 Contractors

Orders and contracts must be awarded on merit by fair competition, in accordance with the Council's Standing Orders and Financial Regulations, and no favour should be shown to businesses run by, for example, friends, partners or relatives in the tendering process.

Employees who engage or supervise contractors or have any other official relationships with contractors and have previously had or currently have a relationship in a business, private or domestic capacity with contractors or potential contractors, must declare that relationship in writing to their Chief Officer and also to the Director of Legal and Planning Services for recording in the Register of Interests.

Employees in their official relationships with contractors and potential contractors must not conduct themselves in such a manner so as to convey that they are in a position of giving favour, or in their dealings conduct themselves so as to directly or indirectly canvass or infer that they seek gift, loan, fee, reward or advantage, or any offer of such. In addition, section 117 Local Government Act 1972 requires officers to notify the Council of any contract with the Council in which they have a direct or indirect pecuniary interest. It also provides that an officer may not under colour of their employment accept any fee or reward. Breach of those requirements is a criminal offence

6. APPOINTMENT AND OTHER EMPLOYMENT MATTERS

Employees involved in appointment and promotions must ensure that these are made on the basis of merit. It would be improper for an employee to make an appointment which was based on anything other than the ability of the candidate to undertake the duties of the post. In order to avoid any possible accusation of bias, employees must not be involved in an appointment where they are related to an applicant, or have a close relationship outside work with him or her, or seek to influence an appointment or promotion for any purpose.

Similarly, employees must not be involved in decisions relating to discipline, promotion or pay adjustments for any employee who is a relative or partner.

7. OUTSIDE COMMITMENTS

All employees must be clear about their contractual obligations and should not engage in any other business or take outside employment which conflicts with the Council's interests, for example, working with or for someone who does business or seeks to do business with the Council or obtain grants, consents or permits from the Council. If in doubt, the employee must consult his or her manager.

The Council will not attempt to preclude any of its employees from engaging in any other business or from undertaking additional employment but any such employment must not, in the Council's view, conflict with or react detrimentally to the Authority's interests, or in any way weaken public confidence in the conduct of the Authority's business.

8. PERSONAL INTEREST

Employees must declare in writing to their Chief Officer any financial or non-financial interest that they consider could bring about conflict with the Authority's interests, for example, personal friendship or association, membership of any club or society that seeks assistance from the Council. A register of financial and non-financial interests is maintained by the Director of Legal and Planning Services and all employees must ensure that the nature of the conflict of interests is recorded in that register.

Employees must declare in writing to the Chief Officer and Director of Legal and Planning Services, membership of any organisation not open to the public without formal membership and commitment of allegiance and which has secrecy about rules or membership or conduct.

Generally, any invention, intellectual property or copyright which is created in the course of employment will belong to the Council.

9. EQUALITY ISSUES

9.1 General

All employees must ensure that Council policies relating to equality issues are complied with, in addition to the requirements of the law. It is the responsibility of each employee to assist in the creation of a work environment where discriminatory behaviour is not tolerated.

9.2 Harassment

The Council believes in equality and social justice and wishes to make it clear that it will not tolerate any harassment, intimidation, unfair discrimination or victimisation, by or against employees, who should not be asked to suffer such behaviour.

Sexual and racial harassment is unlawful, and the Council has resolved to eliminate these forms, and all other forms of unacceptable behaviour in order to enable all employees to work in any part of the Council. Each employee has a duty to ensure that the standard of conduct for themselves and for colleagues respects the dignity of others and does not cause offence. Employees must therefore act in such ways as to avoid all forms of unacceptable behaviour in relation to other employees, clients and customers of the Council.

If an employee wishes to complain of any such activity they should contact the Chief Officer and the Human Resources Division of the Chief Executive's office which will investigate the complaint and take appropriate action.

Allegations of harassment will be dealt with sensitively, expeditiously and confidentially. Complainants will be protected against victimisation and retaliation. (see section 17.13).

10. SEPARATION OF ROLES DURING TENDERING

Employees must exercise fairness and impartiality when dealing with all customers, suppliers, other contractors and sub-contractors.

Employees who are privy to confidential information on tenders or costs for either internal or external contractors must not disclose that information to any unauthorised party or organisation.

Employees must ensure that no favour is shown to current or recent former employees or their partners, close relatives or associates in awarding contracts to businesses run by them or employing them in a senior or relevant managerial capacity.

11. CORRUPTION

Employees must be aware that it is a serious criminal offence for them corruptly to receive or give any gift, loan, fee, reward or advantage for doing or not doing anything or showing favour or disfavour to any person in their official capacity. Employees must advise their Chief Officer at the earliest opportunity of any such approach which is made to them.

12. USE OF RESOURCES

The Council expects its employees to devote their full working day to the business of the Council. An employee must not engage in personal business during a working day.

It is acceptable for employees to use the Council's resources, to a limited extent, provided that the Council is reimbursed for any additional cost involved and also provided that prior approval is obtained from the employee's manager.

13. HOSPITALITY AND GIFTS

Each employee is personally responsible for the initial decision concerning the propriety of hospitality or gifts. Employees may accept offers of modest hospitality or gifts appropriate to the occasion and provided it is normal and reasonable in the circumstances. If there is any suggestion that improper motives may be construed they must be refused or employees must seek advice from a more senior member of management or the Chief Officer. There is no requirement to declare any gift or hospitality below the value of £25. Offers to attend purely social or sporting functions may be accepted when these are part of the life of the community or where the Council should be seen to be represented. All hospitality and gifts received personally (other than general token items, pens, diaries, etc) must be declared to the Director of Legal and Planning Services, who will note it in a register kept for that purpose.

When receiving authorised hospitality and gifts, employees must be particularly sensitive as to its timing in relation to decisions which the Council may be taking affecting those providing the hospitality or gifts.

Acceptance by employees of hospitality through attendance at relevant conferences and courses is acceptable where it is clear the hospitality is corporate rather than personal.

14. SPONSORSHIP - GIVING AND RECEIVING

Where an outside organisation wishes to sponsor or is seeking to sponsor a Council activity, whether by invitation, tender, negotiation or voluntarily, the basic conventions concerning acceptance of gifts or hospitality apply.

Particular care must be taken when dealing with a contractor or potential contractor.

Where the Council wishes to sponsor an event or service neither an employee nor any partner, spouse or relative must benefit from such sponsorship in a direct way without there being full disclosure to the appropriate manager of any such interest. Similarly, where the Council through sponsorship, grant aid, financial or other means, gives support in the community, employees must ensure that impartial advice is given and that there is no conflict of interest involved.

15. PUBLIC SPEAKING

Where employees are invited to address public meetings, undertake radio or television interviews, etc, it is expected that they must clearly understand the basis upon which the invitation was extended. In the majority of cases, an employee will be acting as the representative of the Council, and as such must communicate the policies and procedures of the Council in a factual and unbiased way. Employees must avoid expressing personal views in such situations, and if during the course of the debate or discussion the personal views of the officer are sought, then he/she must consider most carefully whether this would place them in a position of public conflict with their employer. It may be appropriate in such circumstances for the officer to decline to make further comment and terminate the discussion or interview. It is of course recognised that employees are entitled to personal views, and that these may be very strongly felt. Where these personal views are given they must be stated as personal.

16. EMPLOYEES FACING CRIMINAL CHARGES

The Council expects employees facing criminal charges or regulatory action to give notice of such, without delay, to their Chief Officer. Sometimes the nature of the charges or action will be relevant to the employee's job, in other cases the issue will be less clear cut. Employees are aware that their own personal actions can reflect on the Council as a whole. They are required therefore to notify their Chief Officer of any criminal charge or regulatory action which may be pending, whether they personally feel the matter is relevant or not, and the outcome of any such charge. Discussion with the employee will take place as to the extent to which such a charge reflects upon the ability of the employee to perform effectively, or the extent to which the Council's own interests are prejudiced.

EMPLOYEES' REGISTER OF INTERESTS AND DISCLOSURES

As a general principle, employees should err on the side of caution and declare interests that they think may be covered. Assistance can be sought from your Head of Service in first instance or the Director of Legal and Planning Services if any clarification is required.

PROBITY IN PLANNING:

1. CODE OF GOOD PRACTICE FOR THE PLANNING SERVICE

This code of good practice will guide officers and members of the Council in dealing with planning matters and will inform local residents and potential developers as to the procedures which will apply. (Paragraphs in bold type are intended to form the Code)

This code draws on the document entitled "Probity in planning for councillors and officers produced jointly by the Local Government Association (LGA) and the Planning Advisory Service (PAS).

1.1 The general role of members and officers

It is essential that all members and officers act in a way which is fair and impartial and which is clearly seen to be so. Members and officers should take account of all opinions which are expressed. They should act in the interests of the whole Borough rather than any partisan interest.

Members and officers should take decisions in the interests of the whole Borough and should act impartially towards each person, company, group and locality.

1.2 Gifts and hospitality

Members and officers may occasionally be offered gifts or hospitality by an applicant, a potential applicant or an agent. It is very important that there should be no prospect of charges of impropriety being levelled against the Council or any particular individual.

Members and officers should abide by the Council's Code on Gifts and Hospitality.

1.3 Discussions with applicants, potential applicants and agents

The Council recognises the value of pre-application discussions between an applicant and the Council. The pre-application process that the authority has in place is designed to ensure that local knowledge and expertise is fed in to the planning process at an early stage and that the authority complies with paragraphs 186 and 187 of the National Planning Policy Framework in engaging positively with applicants.

The authority also recognises that involving councillors early can help to identify issues, lead on community issues and ensure that all issues are addressed in an open and transparent way. This accords with the 'no shocks' approach recommended by PAS.

The ability of members to be involved has, to an extent, been strengthened by section 25 of the Localism Act. This section of the Localism Act does not however mean that the process will not be adversely affected by perception and this Code addresses those issues to ensure transparency throughout the process.

At the start of any meeting it will be made clear that any discussion will not bind the Council to making a particular decision and any views expressed are personal and provisional.

Officers will be present with councillors in pre-application meetings with the applicant.

A written note will be made of all meetings by the officer in attendance. These notes will contain the issues raised and advice given and will be placed on the planning file. If any confidential discussions are required, then the note will clearly be marked as confidential.

All advice will be impartial and will not advocate a particular position. This will not prevent officers from expressing a provisional view on whether or not they would consider a proposal to be in accordance with the development plan and other material considerations.

It is recognised that it is impossible to record each and every discussion that a councillor may have with constituents on planning matters. Members will exercise their discretion on such discussions and notify the Head of Neighbourhoods and Prosperity when they consider that any meeting or discussion should be recorded on the planning file. When making such decisions members will have regard to this Code.

1.4 Public involvement

To assist the issue of probity it is essential that members of the public are as fully involved as possible in the development control process, in accordance with clear guidelines. Applications are therefore the subject of publicity in accordance with the Council's publicity policy. The current policy forms the appendix to this code, which may be amended from time to time by the Development Control Committee.

Public consultation on all planning applications should be carried out in accordance with the Council's Publicity Policy.

1.5 Reports

Comprehensive, accurate and impartial reports ensure adequate consideration of the issues, help to enable consistent decision-making and provide a sound basis for members to decide whether or not to agree with the officers' recommendations.

Officers' reports represent the professional views of the Head of Service and should cover relevant national and local policies, the substance of any objections and the views of those consulted.

Members will recognise the need for officers' impartial advice and will not seek to compromise the impartiality of officers.

Comments received after the preparation of the Committee agenda will be summarised verbally or through the late items report at the meeting.

1.6 Interests

Local requirements in respect of members' interests are set out in full in the Council's Code of Conduct and the various kinds of interest are defined in detail in that document.

Members will comply with the Code of Conduct for Councillors in respect of interests.

Officers will comply with the Code of Conduct for Employees in respect of interests.

1.7 Lobbying

Members of the public (and the Ombudsman) expect that planning issues will be considered in an open and fair manner in which members making the decision will take account of all the facts and arguments presented before arriving at a decision. If members committed themselves one way or the other before hearing all the facts and arguments, and in particular before reading the officer's report, they would risk making themselves vulnerable to an accusation of partiality. If they then took part in the discussion and voted, they would risk the possibility of judicial review of the decision or a finding of maladministration. Members for a ward to which a proposal relates have a duty to be active local representatives and they may therefore, in accordance with the Council's constitution, take part in the discussion, although not vote.

Members who respond to lobbying by expressing unqualified support or opposition in respect of an issue in advance of reading the officer's report for the relevant Committee meeting should not vote on the issue and, except for ward members, should not take part in the discussion, so avoiding any risk of judicial review.

Members will declare any lobbying at the start of the meeting.

1.8 Committee site visits

It is important that site visits are seen to be fair to all parties and members will be accompanied by officers. Representations will not be heard during the visits, as these are covered in the officers' reports, however the applicant/agent or objectors may point out particular features or ask members to view the site from particular viewpoints.

At the start of any site visit it will be made clear to all in attendance that the site visit is not an opportunity for lobbying.

Site visits may be held if they are likely to be of benefit to the decision-making process.

The purpose of the visits should be for members to see the site and not to hear additional representations.

1.9 Decision Making

If members were to take a firm view on a planning matter before the decision-making meeting, they would not be able to demonstrate that, in participating in a decision, all the relevant facts and arguments had been taken into account. They would have fettered their discretion and might therefore place the Council in danger of judicial review or a finding of maladministration.

Detailed minutes will help to confirm that the reasons for decisions which are contrary to officers' recommendations and to established policy are clear and convincing, as required by the courts, and they will therefore help to avoid any risk of judicial review.

It is quite legitimate for members, officers or the Council itself to submit proposals and for them to seek to explain and justify their proposals to an officer before consideration by Committee, however such applications can easily give rise to suspicions of impropriety and it is therefore vital to ensure that they are handled in a way that gives no grounds for accusations of favouritism.

Members and officers taking decisions on behalf of the Council should reach their own conclusions on the issues and act in accordance with those conclusions, only after carefully weighing all relevant facts and arguments.

Members should draw conclusions only after considering officers' reports.

Detailed reasons should be given of any committee decisions which are contrary to officers' recommendations or to established policy.

When members wish to add to or amend an officer recommendation, an officer should draft any such amendment taking into account the reasons given by members. If necessary, the meeting should be adjourned to enable the officers to compile the reasons (and any conditions) for permission or refusal, or to take appropriate advice.

Members or officers who pursue planning matters on their own behalf or as agents should play no part in the decision-making process, nor should they lobby fellow councillors.

Proposals which involve members or officers who are involved in the planning process* should be reported to committee and the Council's Monitoring Officer should be informed of them.

Proposals for the Council's own development should be reported to committee and should be treated in the same way as those of private developers.

* officers involved in the planning process who are Chief Officers, Heads of Service and employees of the planning and building control sections.

1.10 Access to information

The Council will aim to give broad access to planning files.

Planning application files will be available for public inspection to the extent that they contain information which the Council is legally entitled to disclose.

Certain information may be subject to rules of confidentiality or copyright. The Director of Legal and Planning Services and the Head of Neighbourhoods and Prosperity will, in case of doubt, determine whether particular documents should be disclosed.

1.11 Enforcement

It is important that members of the public do not feel at risk of intimidation by people who may be breaching planning control. Enforcement files will not therefore be open to public inspection unless required to be under relevant legislation. They would however be available if an appeal is lodged or through prosecution, or to the Ombudsman in the event of a complaint.

Unless otherwise required by law, files relating to enforcement issues will not be open to public inspection and, wherever possible, the names of complainants will not be revealed in order that members of the public need not be inhibited from drawing the Council's attention to possible breaches of planning control.

1.12 Training and updating for members

Planning legislation, guidance and procedures can be complex and therefore training and updating is essential for members serving on planning committees. Some basic training on the planning process is also valuable for all members. Updating will normally involve reports to the Development Control Committee. Training and updating may also take the form of seminars.

Members involved in the planning service should receive training before serving on Development Control Committee and should be updated regularly on changes in legislation, policy guidance or procedures.

1.13 Monitoring the quality of decisions

The planning service aims to ensure that quality development takes place in appropriate locations and that unsuitable development is prevented. In order to ensure that these aims are met, it is necessary to assess the quality of developments which take place and the quality of the decisions which led to them. If the developments are unsatisfactory in some way, it may indicate a need for changes in the Council's policies or practices. Monitoring should help to improve the quality and consistency of decision-making, so strengthening public confidence in the planning system.

Officers should review annually a representative sample of implemented planning permissions in order to assess the quality of the decisions and advise members whether there is a need to reconsider any policies or practices.

1.14 Complaints

Any complaint received in writing about the way a planning matter has been dealt with, in terms of procedures or fairness, will be looked into fully. A disagreement with a decision will not in itself lead to investigation, however officers will explain the reasons for the decision.

Any written complaints regarding the way in which a planning decision has been reached will be investigated under the Council's Complaint Procedure.

2. PUBLICITY POLICY

1. Major Development

For applications falling within the "major developments" category, the Council will advertise the application in a local newspaper, by neighbour notification and with a site notice.

Major development includes :

- (a) 10 or more dwellings or, if this is not known, where the site is 0.5 hectares or more; and
- (b) for all other uses, where the floorspace to be created is 1000 square metres or more, or the site area is 1 hectare or more.

2. Minor Development

Minor development is all development which does not fall within the major development category above.

The Council will undertake neighbour notification as specified in section 8 below and, if the development falls within any of the defined categories at sections 3-7, will undertake further publicity as stated.

3. Applications accompanied by an Environmental Assessment

The Council will advertise the application in a local newspaper, by means of a site notice and by neighbour notification.

4. Departures from the Development Plan

Where an application proposes development which materially departs from the provisions of the development plan, then the Council will advertise the application in a local newspaper, by means of a site notice and by neighbour notification.

5. Listed Buildings and development within Conservation Areas

The Council will advertise applications for listed building consent and for developments in conservation areas which would affect the character or appearance of the area in a local newspaper, by means of a site notice and by neighbour notification.

6. Changes of Use to A3, A4 and A5 Uses (food and drink)

A3, A4 and A5 uses may be associated with additional noise, smells and general disturbance in the locality. In such cases, the Council will display a site notice and undertake neighbour notification.

7. Applications for new dwellings

Where new dwellings are proposed, particularly on infill plots, additional publicity is undertaken. The Council will display a site notice and undertake neighbour notification.

8. Neighbour notification

Neighbour notification occurs by means of a letter sent to the occupier of all buildings or land which directly abut the application site as identified by the red line on an application. Where the ownership of unoccupied land is uncertain or cannot be identified from the ordnance survey plan, a site notice will be displayed. Neighbours are given 21 days from the date of a notification letter in which to comment on applications.

Neighbours are also sent further letters if an application is materially amended prior to a decision. The period for making further representations would normally be 7 days from the date of the letter.

9. Site notices

Site notices are A4 sized and brightly coloured to increase their visibility. Site notices are attached to a lamppost or similar structure as close as possible to the application site.

If the Council becomes aware that a site notice has been removed before the expiration of the consultation period, it will display a replacement notice for the remaining period of the consultation.

If a site notice is displayed, then a revised site notice (of a different colour) will be displayed to advertise the receipt of amended plans.

10. Minor amendments

Following the approval of a planning application, applicants sometimes wish to amend their proposals. Such amendments can only be dealt with if they are de minimis.

3. GUIDANCE FOR MEMBERS ON HOSPITALITY AND GIFTS

1. Introduction

This guidance is ancillary to the requirements of the Members' Code of Conduct. The Code governs the ethical standards required of members. Specifically, it seeks to ensure that the public role of members is not prejudiced by inappropriate behaviour or association. Members may be offered gifts or hospitality and it is important that such offers are considered critically. This guidance is written to assist in determining how to respond to such offers.

2. Principles

2.1 People or bodies may have on going contractual relationships with the Council. Equally, people or bodies may need planning permission or other consent from the Council to conduct their affairs. They could seek to secure a sympathetic response from Council members by the making of gifts. Equally, whether or not the intention to secure an advantage is present, an outsider might suspect that any improper advantage is being sought from a member. It is essential that members should give critical consideration to the offer of gifts or hospitality in that light.

2.2 There are few hard and fast rules governing the acceptance of gifts and hospitality. Clearly if the offer is corrupt, there are criminal implications. Members are required to disclose any gift or hospitality over the value of £25.00 to the Monitoring Officer (MO). They will notify the MO, in writing, of the existence and nature of that gift or hospitality within twenty-eight days of receiving it. Details will be entered in a register maintained by the MO which is open to public inspection.

- 2.3 Members are personally responsible for all decisions connected with the acceptance of gifts or hospitality and for avoiding the risk of damage to public confidence in the authority.
- 2.4 Members should therefore treat all offers of gifts or hospitality with caution, with a view to not only avoiding impropriety but also any suggestion of impropriety. Members should give the same consideration to offers made to members of their family or friends which could be viewed as securing an indirect benefit to themselves.
- 2.5 Although all offers should be treated with caution, there will be occasions where not to accept reasonable gifts or hospitality would prejudice the regular conduct of the Council's business or give offence to persons or bodies of significance to the Council. This is most obviously seen in the context of overseas civic twinning arrangements where courtesies demand the exchange of reasonable gifts and hospitality and special arrangements (detailed later) are in place. Equally, it is reasonable to expect business meetings to be accompanied by modest refreshment should the nature and duration of the meeting demand it. An example would be the provision of a working lunch.
- 2.6 It is important that the offer and receipt of gifts and hospitality takes place in an open manner. Such openness will serve to remove suspicion and provide accountability. It will also deter the making of inappropriate offers.

3. General Guidance

- * Whether to accept the offer of a gift or hospitality should be considered in the light of the above principles.
- * Members should never accept a gift or hospitality as an inducement or reward for taking any particular action.
- * Members should never accept a gift or hospitality if acceptance may be open to misinterpretation by those offering the gift or hospitality.
- * Members should never solicit a gift or hospitality.
- * Receiving civic hospitality provided by another public authority is acceptable.
- * Receiving tickets for sporting, cultural and entertainment events sponsored by the authority is acceptable.

- * Members should declare the receipt of all offers to the MO whether or not the offer has been accepted. The MO will keep a register of the receipt of gifts and hospitality, i.e. over £25.00.
- * Members should be particularly alert to any relationship that the person making the offer has to the Council, i.e. whether they have a contractual relationship with the Council or whether they are likely to require a favourable decision from the Council, e.g. a planning permission, a contract or a licence.
- * It is acceptable to receive modest gifts on significant occasions, e.g. at Christmas, where not to do so would show a lack of courtesy. An example of such a gift might be a diary or a calendar. Acceptance of a gift or hospitality is more likely to be acceptable where that offer either has been or is likely to be reciprocated by the Council.
- * Accepting modest refreshment to ease the working day is acceptable.
- * It is the responsibility of each individual member whether to accept such offers. If in doubt, advice is obtainable from the MO.

4. Civic Gifts and Hospitality

- * It is the responsibility of the Chief Executive to ensure that hospitality for civic events is proportionate to the occasion. A guiding principle in accepting or offering hospitality is whether it is reasonable to expect the hospitality to be reciprocated at a similar level.
- * The presumption is that any gifts given to the Mayor or Deputy Mayor or Escort are gifts to the office of the Mayor and so belong to the Council. The Chief Executive is the final arbiter of whether such gifts belong to the Council or to the individual occupying the office of Mayor.
- * The Chief Executive will maintain a record of all gifts to the office of Mayor. All gifts in excess of a value of £25 will be declared to the MO for entry in the register.

4. PUBLIC SPEAKING AT DEVELOPMENT CONTROL COMMITTEE

1. Protocol

Members of the public who have written to the Council objecting/supporting an application, together with the applicant will be advised in writing 7 days prior to the meeting of their opportunity to speak at the committee.

Those wishing to speak at the committee must register their desire by telephoning the Democratic Services Section on 0115 917 3522 by 12 noon one clear working day prior to the committee meeting.

Only one person objecting and the applicant or a supporter may speak. Professional representatives/agents will not be entitled to speak. Where an application affects a large area, additional speakers will be allowed, at the discretion of the Director of Legal and Planning Services and Head of Neighbourhoods and Prosperity, if it is felt there is justification on the basis of a multiplicity of viewpoints and issues.

If more than one person wishes to speak in objection to a particular application then, subject to the above discretion, the person living closest, or most likely to be affected by the development, will be allowed to speak. The Heads of Neighbourhoods and Prosperity and the Director of Legal and Planning Services will make that decision. Other people may be put in touch with the chosen person in order that they may co-ordinate the views of others.

The applicant or a supporter will only be permitted to speak on the application if either there is to be an objecting speaker or if the officer recommendation is to refuse the application. A supporter may only speak if the applicant chooses not to. Following the registration deadline, the people selected to speak will be notified by Democratic Services.

In the case of exceptional applications then the Heads of Neighbourhoods and Prosperity and Director of Legal and Planning Services may decide to vary these provisions to allow additional speakers to address the meeting.

People will be invited to speak after the chair and relevant officer have introduced the application and prior to the debate by members.

Speakers will be limited to a maximum of 3 minutes each and may not otherwise participate in the Committee debate. The chair will inform the speaker when there are 30 seconds remaining.

Speakers are only entitled to raise issues related to planning matters relevant to the particular application. Advice on non-planning matters will be provided on the explanatory leaflet and cannot be taken into account. The chair will be entitled to stop the speaker if necessary. Advice can be obtained from the duty planner by telephoning 0115 917 7777.

Speakers are advised to avoid making derogatory or disparaging statements.

Speakers will not be able to ask direct questions of the chair, members of the Committee or council officers.

No visual aids will be permitted to supplement a presentation. The speaker may, however, refer to plans, photographs or other material already displayed at the meeting by the Council.

NOTES

1. Any member may refer an application to the Development Control Committee for a decision. Such a member may speak but not vote on the application, unless they are a member of the committee. Additionally, ward councillors also have the right to attend and speak but not to vote on an application for planning consent for a matter affecting their ward. Speeches by members who have referred an application to committee and by ward members will be limited to five minutes duration.
2. It is expected that only one ward member will speak in support of an application and one against.
3. Any member or officer who is party to an application being considered by the Development Control Committee may not avail themselves of the rights granted by this protocol because of the Codes of Conduct applicable to them and should not be present in the meeting during the consideration of their application.

PROTOCOL ON COUNCILLOR/OFFICER RELATIONS

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 This protocol is intended to assist councillors and officers in approaching many of the sensitive circumstances which arise in a challenging working environment.
- 1.2 The integrity of the Council is significantly influenced by the effectiveness of councillors and officers working together to support each other's roles. The pursuit of rapport, trust and collaboration is an elusive and continuing challenge for each councillor and officer. These conventions are intended to be an important support to that process.
- 1.3 The aim is to produce effective professional working relationships between members and officers. Members are offered appropriate resources and in particular I.T. equipment, by the Council and are encouraged to make full use of such resources and especially in order to maintain efficient contact with each other and with officers. Close personal familiarity between individual members and officers is to be avoided, since this distorts the productive, professional relationship, which is characterised by mutual trust, respect and courtesy.

2. ROLES OF COUNCILLORS AND OFFICERS

- 2.1 The respective roles of councillors and officers can be summarised as follows:

Councillors and officers are servants of the public and they are indispensable to one and other, but their responsibilities are distinct. Councillors are responsible to the electorate and serve only so long as their term of office lasts. Officers are responsible to the Council. Their job is to give advice to councillors and to the authority, and to carry out the authority's work under the direction and control of the Council, the executive and relevant committees.

Mutual respect between councillors and officers is essential to good local government.

2.2 Councillors

Councillors have four main areas of responsibility:

- (a) determining the policy of the authority and giving it political leadership,
- (b) monitoring and reviewing the performance of the authority in implementing that policy and delivering services,
- (c) representing the authority externally, and
- (d) acting as advocates on behalf of their constituents.

It is not the role of councillors to involve themselves in the day to day management of the authority's services.

2.3 Members of the Executive, Chairs and Vice Chairs

Members of the Executive and Chairs and Vice Chairs of committees have additional responsibilities. Because of those responsibilities, their relationships with employees may differ from, and be more complex than, those of councillors without those responsibilities, and this is recognised in the expectations they are entitled to have. However, such councillors must still respect the impartiality of officers, must not ask them to undertake work of a party political nature, or to do anything which would put them in difficulty in the event of a change in the political composition of the authority.

2.4 Opposition Councillors

As individual councillors, all councillors have the same rights and obligations in their relationship with officers and should be treated equally. This principle is particularly important in the context of scrutiny and overview. However, where a political group forms an administration, either alone or in partnership with another group or groups, it is recognised that the relationship between officers, particularly those at a senior level in the organisation, and the administration will differ from that with opposition groups.

2.5 Officers

The role of officers is to give advice and information to councillors and to implement the policies determined by the authority.

In giving such advice to councillors, and in preparing and presenting reports, it is the responsibility of the officer to express his/her own professional views and recommendations. Whilst an officer may report the views of individual councillors on an issue, if the councillor wishes to express a contrary view he/she should not seek to pressure the officer to make a recommendation contrary to the officer's professional view.

Certain officers: the Head of Paid service, Monitoring Officer and Chief Financial Officer have responsibilities in law over and above their obligations to the Authority and to individual councillors, and councillors must respect these obligations, must not obstruct officers in the discharge of these responsibilities, and must not victimise officers for discharging these responsibilities.

3. EXPECTATIONS

3.1 Councillors can expect from officers:

- (a) a commitment to the Authority as a whole, and not to any political group
- (b) a working partnership
- (c) an understanding of and support of respective roles, workloads and pressures
- (d) timely response to enquiries and complaints
- (e) professional advice, not influenced by political views or preference, which does not compromise the political neutrality of officers
- (f) regular, up to date information on matters that can reasonably be considered appropriate and relevant to their needs, having regard to any individual responsibilities that they have and positions that they hold
- (g) awareness of and sensitivity to the political environment
- (h) respect and courtesy
- (i) training and development in order to carry out their role effectively
- (j) integrity, mutual support and appropriate confidentiality
- (k) not to have personal issues raised with them by officers outside the agreed procedures

- (l) that employees will not use their relationship with councillors to advance their personal interests or to influence decisions improperly
- (m) that officers will at all times comply with the relevant Code of Conduct
- (n) support for the role of councillors as the local government representatives of the authority, within any scheme of support for councillors which may be approved by the Authority

3.2 Officers can expect from councillors:

- (a) a working partnership
- (b) an understanding of and support for respective roles, workloads and pressures
- (c) political leadership and direction
- (d) respect and courtesy
- (e) integrity, mutual support and appropriate confidentiality
- (f) not to be subject to bullying or to be put under undue pressure. Councillors should have regard to the seniority of officers in determining what are reasonable requests, having regard to the power relationship between councillors and officers, and the potential vulnerability of officers, particularly at junior levels.
- (g) that councillors will not use their position or relationship with officers to advance their personal interests or those of others or to influence decisions improperly
- (h) that councillors will at all times comply with the relevant Code of Conduct

3.3 Limitations upon Behaviour

The distinct roles of councillors and officers necessarily impose limitations upon behaviour. By way of illustration, and not as an exclusive list:

- (a) Close personal relationships between councillors and officers can confuse these separate roles and get in the way of the proper discharge of the authority's functions, not least in creating the perception in others that a particular councillor or officer may secure advantageous treatment.

- (b) The need to maintain the separate roles means that there are limits to the matters on which they may seek the advice of officers, both in relation to personal matters and party political issues.
- (c) Relationships with particular individuals or party groups should not be such as to create public suspicion that an employee favours that councillor or group above others. The issue of officer attendance and advice to political groups is specifically covered below.

4. POLITICAL GROUPS

4.1 The operation of political groups is now an integral feature of local government, and such political groups have an important part to play in the development of policy and the political management of the authority. It is in the interests of the authority to support the effective operation of political groups, but their operation can pose particular dangers in terms of the impartiality of officers.

4.2 Reports:

- (a) Political groups may request the Chief Executive to prepare written reports on matters relating to the authority for consideration by the group.
- (b) Officer reports to political groups will be limited to a statement of material facts and identification of options and the merits and demerits of such options for the Authority. Reports will not deal with any political implications of the matter or any option, and officers will not make any recommendation to a political group.
- (c) Where a report is prepared for a political group, the Chief Executive will advise all other groups that a report has been prepared and the topic of the report.

4.3 Officer Attendance

- (a) Any political group may request the Chief Executive to attend a meeting of the group to advise on any particular matter relating to the authority.
- (b) The Chief Executive may arrange for the attendance of a representative in his/her stead, or may decline to attend or to provide a representative where he/she is of the opinion that the particular issue is of such a political nature that it would be inappropriate to attend.
- (c) Officers' advice to political groups will be limited to a statement of material facts and identification of options and the merits and demerits of such options for the authority. Advice will not deal with any political implications of the matter or any option, and officers will not make any recommendation to a political group.

- (e) Where an officer attends a political group, the Chief Executive will advise all other groups that the officer has attended and the subject upon which he/she has advised.

4.4 Where correspondence from an officer to a member is copied to another person, the addressee of the letter will be made aware that a copy is being forwarded to that other person.

5. WHEN THINGS GO WRONG

5.1 Procedure for officers

From time to time the relationship between councillors and officers may break down or become strained. Whilst it will always be preferable to resolve matters informally, through conciliation by an appropriate senior manager or councillors, officers will have recourse to the Grievance Procedure or to the Council's Monitoring Officer, as appropriate to the circumstances. In the event of a grievance or complaint being upheld, the matter will be referred to the Chief Executive, who, having advised the Leader of the Council and the appropriate group leader will decide on the course of action to be taken.

5.2 Procedure for councillors

In the event that a councillor is dissatisfied with the conduct, behaviour or performance of an officer, the matter should be raised with the appropriate Director. Where the officer concerned is a Director, the matter should be raised with the Chief Executive. Where the employee concerned is the Chief Executive, the matter should be raised with the Head of Human Resources. If the matter cannot be resolved informally, it may be necessary to invoke the Council's disciplinary procedure.

WHISTLEBLOWING POLICY

1. Introduction

- 1.1 The Public Interest Disclosure Act became law in July 1999. The Act seeks to address circumstances which arise when employees have concerns about what is happening at work. It seeks to ensure that a whistleblower who makes a proper disclosure of relevant information does not thereby incur unfair treatment. This policy document sets out the Council's response to the requirements of the Act.

2. Detail

- 2.1 Where such concerns arise, they are usually easily resolved. However, when they are perceived to be about unlawful conduct, financial malpractice or dangers to the public or the environment (see Section 4.2 for particular types of concerns), it can sometimes be difficult to know what to do.
- 2.2 You may be worried about raising issues or may want to keep the concerns to yourself, perhaps feeling that it's none of your business, or that it's only a suspicion. You may feel that raising the matter would be disloyal to colleagues, managers or the organisation. You may decide to say something but find you have spoken to the wrong person or raised the issue in the wrong way and are not sure what to do next.
- 2.3 The Council is committed to the highest possible standards of openness, probity and accountability. In line with that commitment it is expected that employees of the Council and others with whom the Council deals who have serious concerns about any aspect of the Council's work, will come forward and voice these concerns. It is recognised that most disclosures will be undertaken on a confidential basis.
- 2.4 The Council has introduced this procedure to enable you, as an employee, to raise your concerns about perceived malpractice at an early stage and in the right way. The Council would rather that you raised the matter when it is just a concern rather than waiting for proof. Any amendments to this policy will be notified to employees.
- 2.5 If something is troubling you which you think should be known about or looked into, please use this procedure. This whistleblowing procedure is primarily for concerns where the interests of others or of the organisation itself are potentially at risk.

2.6 These procedures are in addition to and separate from the Council's complaints procedures including the grievance procedure and the harassment policy. If you are aggrieved about your personal position, please use the grievance procedure (which can be obtained from your line manager, Administrative Officer or the Human Resources Division of the Chief Executive's Department. (See para 4.2)

2.7 This policy applies to:

- (i) all employees of the Council.
- (ii) contractors working for the Council on Council premises (for example agency staff).
- (iii) suppliers and those providing services under a contract with the Council.
- (iv) people working in partnership with the Council, and its employees and members (eg. volunteers, trustees etc).

2.8 If in doubt - raise it!

3. The Council's Assurance to You

3.1 Your safety

The members, the Chief Executive and the General Management Team are committed to this Policy. You will not be at risk of suffering any form of retribution as a result of raising your concerns, provided that you are acting in good faith. It does not matter if you are mistaken, so long as you reasonably believe there is a problem.

3.2 Of course, the Council does not extend this assurance to someone who maliciously raises a matter that they know is untrue or makes an allegation for personal gain. This could be construed as gross misconduct and disciplinary action may be taken.

3.3 Your confidence

The Council will not tolerate the harassment or victimisation of anyone raising a genuine concern. However, it is recognised that you may nonetheless want to raise a concern in confidence under this Policy. If you ask that your identity is protected by keeping your confidence, it will not be disclosed without your consent. If the situation arises where the Council is not able to resolve the concern without revealing your identity (for instance because your evidence is needed in court), it will be discussed with you, as to whether and how the matter can be proceeded with.

- 3.4 Remember that if you do not tell the Council who you are, it will be much more difficult to look into the matter, or to protect your position, or to give you feedback. Accordingly, while anonymous reports may be considered, this Policy is not appropriate for concerns raised anonymously. Concerns raised anonymously are much less powerful, but may be considered at the discretion of the Council.
- 3.5 Any investigation into allegations of potential malpractice will not influence or be influenced by any disciplinary or redundancy procedures that may already affect you.

4. Aims and scope of the policy

4.1 This Policy aims to:

- (i) encourage you to feel confident in raising serious concerns and to question and to act upon concerns about Council practice.
- (ii) provide avenues for you to raise those concerns and receive feedback on any action taken.
- (iii) ensure that you receive a response to your concerns and that you are aware of how to pursue them if you are not satisfied.
- (iv) reassure you that you will be protected from any possible reprisals and victimisation if you have a reasonable belief that you have made the disclosure in good faith.

4.2 There are already existing procedures in place within the Council for disclosing certain concerns. These are:

- (i) the Council's complaints procedure.
- (ii) the Council's Grievance Procedure, which enables you to lodge a grievance relating to your own employment.

This policy is intended to cover major concerns that may fall outside the scope of other procedures. These include:

- the unauthorised use of public funds.
- possible fraud or corruption.
- sexual or physical abuse of both employees and clients.
- health and safety risks (including risks to the public as well as to other employees).
- conduct which is an offence or breach of law.

- disclosures related to miscarriages of justice (ie. where the Council has acted improperly or unfairly).
- damage to the environment.
- other unethical conduct.

4.3 It is clear that any serious concerns that you may have about any aspect of service provision, or the conduct of officers or members of the Council, or others acting on behalf of the Council, can be reported under this Policy. This may be something that:

- makes you feel uncomfortable, or
- is against any of the Council's existing codes and policies, such as standing orders or financial regulations or
- is contrary to established standards of practice, or amounts to improper conduct.

5. How the matter will be handled

5.1 Once you have notified the Council of your concern, it will be looked into in order to assess initially what action should be taken. This may involve an internal enquiry or a more formal investigation. You will be notified who is handling the matter, how you can contact them, and whether your further assistance may be needed. A formal written response will be issued to you summarising your concern and setting out how the Council proposes to handle the matter.

5.2 When you raise the concern you may be asked how you think the matter might best be resolved. If you have any personal interest in the matter, it is vital that this is mentioned at the outset. If your concern more properly falls within another Council policy, such as the grievance procedure you will be notified.

5.3 While the purpose of this Policy is to investigate possible malpractice and take appropriate steps to deal with it, you will be given as much feedback as possible.

5.4 Rarely, a case might arise where it is the employer that has participated (or even continues to participate) in the action causing concern. In such a case it is in the employee's interest to come into the open as soon as possible.

6. How to raise a concern

6.1 Step 1

If you have a concern about malpractice, it is hoped that you will be able to raise it first with your line manager. This will obviously depend upon the seriousness and sensitivity of the issues involved and who is suspected of the malpractice. For example, if you believe that management is involved, you should approach the officers identified in Step 2 below. You may, at any stage, feel the necessity to take independent advice (See Section 6.4).

6.2 Step 2

If you feel unable to raise the matter with your line manager, for whatever reason, you should raise the matter with your Director.

6.3 Step 3

If either, or both, of these channels have been followed, and you still have concerns, or if you feel that the matter is so serious that you cannot discuss it with any of the above, you may wish to contact either the Monitoring Officer or the Chief Executive:

Name: Phillip Horsfield (Monitoring Officer)
Contact Details: Directorate of Resources,
Council Offices, Foster Avenue, Beeston, Nottingham, NG9 1AB
Tel: 9173230

or

Name: Ruth Hyde (Chief Executive)
Contact Details: Chief Executive's Office, Town Hall, Foster Avenue, Beeston, Nottingham, NG9 1AB
Tel: 9173255

6.4 Either the Chief Executive or the Monitoring Officer may refer your concern to the Council's Standards Committee.

6.5 Independent advice

If you are unsure whether in principle to use this procedure or you want independent advice at any stage, you may contact:

- your union (if you are a member) who could assist you in raising your concern, or
- the Council's external auditors, or
- the independent charity Public Concern at Work on 0171 404 6609. Their lawyers can give you free confidential advice at any stage about how to raise a concern about serious malpractice at work.

6.5 External contracts

While it is hoped that this Policy gives you the reassurance you need to raise such matters internally, it is recognised that there may be circumstances where you can properly report matters to outside bodies, such as the prescribed regulators, some of whom are outlined below, or the police. Prescribed regulators, who will be appointed by the Government, are external bodies able to take and consider your concerns). Public Concern at Work, or if applicable your own union, will be able to advise you on such an option and on the circumstances in which you may be able to contact an outside body safely.

Relevant prescribed regulators are as follows:

- (i) Health and safety risks - Health and Safety Executive
- (ii) Environmental issues - The Environment Agency
- (iii) Financial services - Financial Conduct Authority and The Bank of England.
- (iv) Fraud and fiscal irregularities - Serious Fraud Office, Inland Revenue and Customs and Excise.
- (v) Public sector finance - National Audit Office.
- (vi) Competition & consumer law - Office of Fair Trading.
- (vii) Others - Certification Officer (Trade Unions), Charity Commission, Data Protection Registrar.

There are additional regulators other than those outlined above.

6.6 You may wish to consider discussing your concern with a colleague first, and you may find it easier to raise the matter if there are two (or more) of you who have had the same experience or concerns.

6.7 You may invite your union representative or a friend to be present during any meetings or interviews in connection with the concerns you have raised.

7. How the Council will respond

7.1 Any concerns raised will always receive a response. This will entail consideration of the disclosure and may involve an internal investigation, following which matters may be referred to an external agency (such as external audit or the police).

- 7.2 In order to protect individuals and those accused of possible malpractice, initial enquiries will be made in order to identify whether an investigation is appropriate and, if it is, what form it should take. The overriding principle here is the public interest.
- 7.3 Within ten working days of a concern being raised, the Monitoring Officer will write to you:
- (i) acknowledging that the concern has been received.
 - (ii) indicating how it is proposed to deal with the matter.
 - (iii) giving an estimate of how long it will take to complete investigations.
 - (iv) telling you whether any initial enquiries have been made.
 - (v) supplying you with the information on how the Council will support you if you think this is necessary, whilst the matter is under consideration.
 - (vi) keeping you informed of the progress.
- 7.4 The amount of contact between you and the officers considering the matter will depend on both the nature of the matters raised, the potential difficulties involved and the clarity of the information provided. If necessary, further information will be sought from you. Meetings can take place away from the Council offices if you prefer.
- 7.5 Steps will be taken to minimise any difficulties which you may experience as a result of raising a concern. For instance, if you are required to give evidence in criminal or disciplinary proceedings, arrangements will be made for you to receive advice about the procedure.

8. If you are dissatisfied

- 8.1 If you feel that the Council has not responded correctly at any stage, remember you can go to the other levels and bodies mentioned in section 6.5. While it cannot be guaranteed that all matters will be addressed in the way you might wish, it will always be the Council's intention to handle the matter fairly and properly. By using this policy, you will help achieve this.
- 8.2 If you do take the matter outside the Council, you must ensure that you do not disclose confidential information.

9. The Responsible Officer

- 9.1 The Chief Executive has the overall responsibility for the maintenance and operation of this Policy, and will maintain a record of concerns raised and the results of any investigations made (in a form that will not endanger your confidentiality).

The Charter is designed to strengthen communications through information exchange and through consultation.
3. Broxtowe will give parish and town councils up-to-date public information about its services and facilities as follows: its annual report, the public agenda for council and committee meetings (for those parish and town councils which want that information), copies of planning applications in accordance with the statutory procedures, a current list of its members and committee membership, a calendar of meetings, a current list of key contact officers, information about applications for entertainments licences within the parish and town. Broxtowe recognises that parish and town councils may have different requirements and aspirations and will therefore try to meet requests for information and consultation in a flexible and responsive way.
4. In their turn, parish and town councils will supply their ward representatives with agendas for parish and town council meetings (if they are desired). Parish and town councils will also assist in keeping their ward representatives informed of local views on current issues and seek to maintain close contact with them. Whilst recognising the pressure on the time of Broxtowe members, the parish and town council will seek to invite ward councillors to parish and town council meetings.
5. Broxtowe will provide speakers to address local councils on matters for which it has responsibility as appropriate and as soon as practicable.
6. Each parish and town council will seek to keep Broxtowe informed of changes in local circumstances thereby assisting Broxtowe to provide a better service to residents of the borough.
7. Where appropriate Broxtowe will seek to give informal advice to parish and town councils regarding legal, financial and technical matters.

8. Where Broxtowe is consulting parish and town councils, it will indicate the date by which responses are needed. Following such consultation Broxtowe will inform the parish and town councils of the decision taken.
