

Beeston West
Community Action Team Minutes
Tuesday, 21 March 2017
Old Council Chamber, Town Hall,
Foster Avenue, Beeston

In attendance: Cllr. Steve Carr in the chair, Cllr. Janet Patrick, Lee Burgin [VAB], and 22 residents. Marion Wallwork took the minutes.

1. Residents' issues

- The White Park Hills Confederation is considering selling some of its land for housing, although it is in the green belt.
- Road sweeping is carried out by Broxtowe Borough Council on behalf of Notts County Council.
- Empty houses are subject to council tax, but can be compulsorily purchased by the council.
- The pavement at the bottom of Wollaton Road on the east side is very narrow and is dangerously cluttered with sandwich boards etc. SC to investigate.
- Re potholes: NCC has set up a private company to deal with highways including repair of potholes. SC notes all potholes and residents can report them on the NCC website.
- The Victorian sign for Grove Avenue has disappeared since the tram works.
- Re vehicles illegally driving over the space in front of the old post office: SC will investigate.

2. Lee Burgin, the new Chief Executive of Broxtowe Voluntary Action which is based at Oban House, gave a talk on its activities. It supports community groups, charities and social enterprises through training and advice, and provides use of the building and garden for them. It supports people who want to volunteer with training, and finds places in which they can serve. It has set up many projects to help people in need such as befriending lonely old people and helping disabled people with light shopping. It provides print and reprographics at low cost and runs a Vintage Tea Room, English language classes for newcomers, and house removal and house clearance services.

3. Actions

- The council's Jobs and Economy committee is to look into the matter of aggressive behaviour of those representing Virgin and Talk Talk at stalls in the High Road.

- JP is to visit the head teacher of Roundhill School yet again about the rubbish between the fences down the side of the twitchell.
- The young people from St Nick's Church may be invited to help Syrian refugees.
- Boundary changes for local wards can be seen on the website www.LGBCE.org.uk

4. Next meeting

Tuesday, 18th July 2017 at 7pm in the Old Council Chamber, Foster Avenue.

5. The meeting closed at 8:30pm
