

DEFINITIONS

Polling District

A geographical area created by the sub-division of an electoral area into smaller parts. Broxtowe is divided into * polling districts for local elections. The designation of polling districts is the responsibility of the Borough Council.

Polling Place

A geographical location in which a polling station is situated. There is no legal definition of a polling place and the geographical area of a polling place therefore can be as narrow as a building or as wide as a polling district. Polling districts are currently designated as polling places in Broxtowe. The designation of polling places is the responsibility of the Borough Council.

Polling Station

A room or area within the polling place where voting takes place. Polling stations are chosen by the (Acting) Returning Officer for the election.
