

Privacy notice for electoral registration

This privacy notice is published in accordance with the Data Protection Act (2018). The notice provides general information on the way in which the personal information you provide is managed and processed by the Electoral Registration Officer (the 'data controller').

The Data Controller and Contact Details

The Electoral Registration Officer (ERO) is the Data Controller for the personal data you provide. The contact details for you to exercise any of your data protection rights or to raise any concerns you may have regarding your personal data are:

Information Governance Officer
Broxtowe Borough Council
Council Offices
Foster Avenue
Beeston
Nottingham
NG9 1AB

Email: dp@broxtowe.gov.uk

Tel: 0115 9173685

Information we collect about you

We may collect and process the following data about you:

- Information provided voluntarily by you for the purposes of registering to vote
- Information that you provide when you communicate with us by any means such as email, letter or telephone call
- Information collected using cookies on your computer about how you browse our website. Further information about what cookies are and how we use them can be found at <https://www.broxtowe.gov.uk/about-the-council/communications-web-social-media/legal-privacy/>

Use of Your Personal Data

The information you have provided to the ERO will be used by the ERO in adherence with its statutory obligations, including enforcement action if required.

To verify your identity, the data you provide will be processed by the Individual Electoral Registration Digital Service managed by the Department for Levelling Up, Housing and Communities (DLUHC). As part of this process your data will be shared with the Department of Work and Pensions and DLUHC suppliers who are data processors for the Individual Electoral Registration Digital Service. You can find more information about this here: <https://www.registertovote.service.gov.uk/register-to-vote/privacy>

The ERO is legally able to process your personal data:

- when you have freely and explicitly provided your consent to this processing or
- when the ERO has a statutory duty to collect and process this information to provide the required service or undertake a statutory function.
- when your personal data forms part of a contract between you and the ERO

The consequence of you not providing personal information to the ERO is that the ERO will be unable to process your vote.

Sharing of Personal Data

The personal information you provide will not be shared for any other purpose unless required by law, to prevent or detect crime or to protect public funds.

Additionally the ERO must make public certain details in the form of a public register where it has a statutory obligation to do so.

The categories of organisations we may share your personal information with are:

- Statutory and other public bodies
- The Returning Officer
- Credit reference agencies

Protecting Your Personal Data

Your unpublished personal data will be kept secure by the ERO and will be kept within the European Economic Union (EEU).

Keeping Your Personal Data

The ERO will keep your personal data in accordance with the Council's retention schedule, unless you explicitly request it to be removed. This right to have your data removed is not an absolute right, for example, we will need to retain your data if this information forms part of a statutory or legal obligation, public registry or an existing contract.

Your responsibilities

- Only provide personal information pertinent to its intended use or for the purpose of processing a claim, application or notification for statutory requirements (electoral register, council tax assessment, rent registry).
- Tell us as soon as possible if any of the personal information you have provided has changed, e.g. your address or other contact details.

Your Rights

There are a number of rights that you may exercise depending on the legal basis for processing your personal data. In most cases, these rights are not absolute and there may be compelling or overriding legal reasons why the ERO cannot meet these rights in full. This will be explained to you in more detail should you contact the ERO for any of the reasons detailed below:

- request a copy of the personal information the ERO holds about you
- to have any inaccuracies corrected
- to have your personal data erased
- to place a restriction on the ERO's processing of your data
- to object to processing; and
- to request your data to be ported (data portability).

Where the processing of your personal data is based on your consent, in most circumstances you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time and the ERO will act on your instructions.

If you have any concerns about how we process your personal data or wish to discuss how to exercise your rights, you should contact the Information Governance Officer using the contact details above. You also have the right to make a complaint to the Council by contacting the Complaints Officer on 0115 9173592.

Alternatively, you may wish to complain directly to the Information Commissioner's Office. You can do this by writing to them at:

Information Commissioner's Office,
Wycliffe House,
Water Lane,
Wilmslow,
Cheshire
SK9 5AF

Telephone: 0303 123 1113.